

MOTION BY CHAIR HILDA L. SOLIS

September 27, 2016

Los Angeles County Supervisor Hilda L. Solis and the Department of Parks and Recreation are hosting two events at Whittier Narrows Recreation Area on October 1, 2016. The first, a community services event, will bring resources, information and services from a number of Los Angeles Departments directly to the community. The second event, is the dedication of the historic Benjamin Dominguez Playground Sculptures, playful aquatic themed cement creatures which have been in the park for more than five decades and recently underwent a complete refurbishment.

I, THEREFORE, MOVE, that the Board of Supervisors waive fees in the amount of $12 per bus for 5 buses and $6 per car for a maximum of 300 parking spaces for a total of $1,860 on October 1st for two events at Whittier Narrows Recreation Area, excluding the cost of liability insurance.
